

'Carol Davila' University of Medicine and Pharmacy - Bucharest
Blvd. Eroii Sanitari 8, Bucharest 050474

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Wednesday, August 30st

19.30 Welcome Reception

Casa Filipescu-Cesianu - Calea Victoriei 151, Bucharest 010072

Welcome (Octavian Buda)

Thursday, August 31st

'Carol Davila' University of Medicine and Pharmacy

Main Amphitheatre

09.00-9.30 Greetings (Representatives from the Carol Davila University)

09.30-10.30 KEYNOTE LECTURE – Mircea Dumitru

10.45-10.55 COFFEE BREAK

Thursday, August 31st

Main Amphitheatre 11.00-13.00	Theatre 2 11.00-13.00	Theatre 3 11.00-13.00	Theatre 4 11.00-13.00	Theatre 5 11.00-13.00
PANEL 1 - ETHICS AND EXPERTISE Chair: Frank Huisman	PANEL 2 - DISABILITY AND THE STATE Chair: Kaat Wils	PANEL 3 - HEALTH AND CITIZENSHIP Chair: Jonathan Simon	PANEL 4 - WOMEN, HEALTH AND FERTILITY Chair: Laurinda Abreu	PANEL 5 - STATES AND HEALTH POLITICS I Chair: Heiner Fangerau
State-authorized medical ethics: the disciplinary function of the British General Medical Council, 1858-1914 Andreas-Holger Maehle	The State and Disability Employment in the British Welfare State, 1945-1979 Andy Holroyde	Between State and Community: the Jewish Health Experience in Scotland, 1880-1948 Kenneth Collins	Good-time girls, wronged wives and Cinderella medicine: doctor-patient encounters in the English VD clinics, 1918–39 Anne Hanley	Entangled Histories: The Foundation and Early Establishment of Public Health Institutions in Britain and Europe Around 1900 Axel C. Hüntelmann
“‘A misconception of educational psychologists’ work”: expertise, child psychology and the aftermath of the 1967 Summerfield Report’ Andrew Burchell	The Disabled Body, Citizenship and Social Belonging: The International Year of Disabled Persons (1981) and Its Impacts on Welfare Policies and Civil Rights Debates in the Nordic Countries Anna Derksen	Biological citizenship in relation to genetic counseling and medical genetics: examples from Sweden 1940-1980 Anna Tunlid, Maria Björkman	Beyond Issues of Control or Liberation: Sterilisation and Access to Birth control in Norway and Sweden, 1930s-1960s Astri Andresen	Politics in action: Discussing the Principles of Dutch Health Care Frank Huisman
Medical Ethics in a Modern Society. The ‘free medical profession’ and the Dutch state, 1945-1980 Noortje Jacobs	Disability, doctors and the Danish state, 1945-1980 Jesper Vaczy Kragh	Health, segregation and governance: managing urban citizenship in colonial Nairobi: 1900-1923 Anna Greenwood, Harshad Topiwala	Antenatal Surveillance in France (1945-1970): Weaving Public Health Fabrice Cahen	“Eugenics and Public Health: the Birth of the Czechoslovak State” Cynthia Paces
State and expertise. The emergence of psychiatry as legal expertise in Europe in the 1820s Svein Atle Skålevåg	Franco’s ‘Mutilated Gentlemen’: disability, gender and citizenship in modern Spain Stephanie Wright	‘Tackling the root which produced it’: Health Education, the Pursuit of Civilization, and Responsibility for Health in Uganda, 1919-1979 Kathleen Vongsathorn	Shifting responsibilities over reproductive bodies: Birth control in the Soviet Ukraine during the Cold War, 1955-1975 Yuliya Hilevych, Chizu Sato	The Market State and US Health Planning, 1966-1986 Barbara Bridgman Perkins
				Social Engineering and Suicide in Finland: Emergence of Suicide Epidemiology in the 1960s and 1970s Mikko Myllykangas

13.15-13.45 LUNCH BREAK

14.00-15.00 KEYNOTE LECTURE - Harry Oosterhuis

University Foyer

Main Amphitheatre

Main Amphitheatre 15.15-17.15	Theatre 2 15.15-17.15	Theatre 3 15.15-17.15	Theatre 4 15.15-17.15	Theatre 5 15.15-17.15
PANEL 6 - STATES AND HEALTH POLITICS II Chair: Octavian Buda	PANEL 7 - STATES AND HEALTH POLITICS III Chair: TBA	PANEL 8 - TUBERCULOSIS, ALCOHOL AND HEALTH POLITIC Chair: Jonathan Reinarz	PANEL 9 - INDUSTRY, ASSISTANCE AND HEALTH Chair: Alfredo Menéndez Navarro	PANEL 10 - EARLY MODERN MEDICINE Chair: Astri Andresen
Struggles for meaning concerning health policy: Eugenics and neo-Malthusianism in the construction of contemporary States Isabel Jiménez-Lucena, Jorge Molero-Mesa, Carlos Tabernero-Holgado	Translation or Juxtaposition? Government, industry, and the quest for a cure for cancer Carsten Timmermann	“Your right, your Duty”: Experiences of Patients Suffering From Tuberculosis, Sexually Transmitted Diseases, and Alcohol Addiction in the German Democratic Republic, 1961-1981 Markus Wahl	Participatory Risk Policy? The Regulation of Silicosis in West German and British Coal Mining Daniel Trabalski	Treating the Living, Infected and Deceased Bodies: Early Modern Anti-Plague Orders Issued in the Habsburg Monarchy Pavla Jirková
Construction of madness to justify a terrorist act: Case trial from Croatia in 1912 Stella Fatović-Ferenčić, Martin Kuhar	Indonesian Physicians in the Dutch East Indies: Opposing the Colonial State, Imagining Independent Indonesia Hans Pols	Tuberculosis Assistance during Portuguese Dictatorship: limits and achievements in the first two decades of dictatorial government (1933-1953) Ismael Cerqueira Vieira	State Regulations of “Hazardous Waste” in OECD Countries 1978-1991: A Comparative Approach Iris Borowy	Before the state: Town physicians and the maintenance of the health of the poor in the Middle Ages Fernando Salmón
Political Factors in Abandoning Lobotomy in Poland in the 1950s Kinga Jeczminska	Colonial state and Medical Services in the Madras Presidency (1900-1910) Arnab Chakraborty	‘The Struggle Between the State and the Drunkard’: Alcohol, Released Prisoners and Health Promotion, 1877-1907 Holly Dunbar	Health effects of a privately organized Public Health. A century of bottom-up, volunteer-based health organizations in The Netherlands Jan Huurman	The state and the health of its citizens: Experiments in medical policing at the end of the Portuguese Ancien Régime Laurinda Abreu
	Influence of the state ideology on the theory and philosophy of the Soviet medicine Evgenia Panova	Alcohol and the liver: medical knowledge, alcohol policy, and the “ebb and flow” in public anxieties over drink in Britain Ryosuke Yokoe		Cristóbal Pérez de Herrera and medical arbitrismo in sixteenth-century Spain Rocío G. Sumillera

17.15-17.30 COFFEE BREAK

Main Amphitheatre 17.30-19.30	Theatre 2 17.30-19.30	Theatre 3 17.30-19.30	Theatre 4 17.30-19.30	Theatre 5 17.30-19.30
PANEL 11 - ABORTION AND THE UNBORN Chair: Yuliya Hilevych	PANEL 12 - METHODS OF SANITATION Chair: TBA	PANEL 13 - NUTRITION, ARMED FORCES AND EPIDEMICS Chair: TBA	PANEL 14 - MEDICINE, STATE AND DEMOCRACY Chair: Frank Huisman	PANEL 15 - CIGARETTES, TEETH AND HEALTH POLICY CHAIR: Jonathan Reinartz
On abortions and political processes for abortion legislation in Scandinavia (1910-1980) Kari Tove Elvbakken	‘Aktion Störfreimachung’ and Diabetes Mellitus in the Shadow of the Berlin Wall, 1961-1966 Kathrin Alexandra Hiepko	“A Warning Bell Should Be Sounded”: The Challenges of Treating Syphilis in the Canadian Expeditionary Force, 1914-1919 Lyndsay Rosenthal	‘Whatever it was it must have begun in the English Jail’: ill-health, political prisoners and the emergence of Irish statehood William Murphy	State cigarettes or transnational tobacco? The Polish state and the politics of smoking between 1974 and 2000 Mateusz Zatonski
Between medicine and religion: legal and juridical conceptions of the unborn Jolien Gijbels	We are in the midst of a fight’: Authority, Responsibility, and Rural Sanitation, 1870-1914 Keir Waddington	Hungry for War: Nutrition, Health and the Mobilized Kitchen in WWI Germany Heather Perry	Public debates about the role of the State in French health care system during the Third Republic Nicolas Pitsos	Anti-smoking regulation in the Netherlands Nele Beyens
Medicine at the borders of life: Human fetal research in Sweden, c. 1960–1971 Jülich Solveig	The forms and methods of sanitation campaign improving in the early years of the Soviet Russia Kira Bogatyreva	Dining In: Prison Diet in Nineteenth Century England Margaret Charleroy	Health Care and Citizenship between Free Market and Solidarity. The Strange Case of Dutch Health Care Reform 1940-2006 Roland Bertens	Improving the Oral Health of the Nation: Tooth Decay, Tooth Brushes and the British State, 1870-1948 Claire Louise Jones
	Fumigating the Nation: Disinfection in Early 20th century Argentina Lukas Engelmann	In the name of social utility: Public order, diseases and epidemics in the Austrian Bukovina Harieta Mareci Sabol	Medicine and democracy in the South of Italy, 1822-1860 Maria Chironna	Competition and radicalization of the dental professions in Germany, 1918-1952 Matthis Krischel

Friday, September 1st

9.30-10.30 KEYNOTE LECTURE - Roberta Bivins

Main Amphitheatre

10.45-10.55 COFFEE BREAK

Main Amphitheatre 11.00-13.00	Theatre 2 11.00-13.00	Theatre 3 11.00-13.00	Theatre 4 11.00-13.00	Theatre 5 11.00-13.00
PANEL 16 - PSYCHIATRY, MANAGEMENT AND SOCIETY Chair: Noortje Jacobs	PANEL 17 - REGULATING BEHAVIORS AND POLICING Chair: Kaat Wils	PANEL 18 - MOTHERHOOD, DOCTORS AND MEDICALIZATION Chair: Astri Andresen	PANEL 19 - PROFESSION, DESIGN AND HEALTH SERVICES Chair: Laurinda Abreu	PANEL 20 - HEALTHCARE BEFORE WELFARE STATES: HOSPITAL PROVISION IN CENTRAL EUROPE, 1918-38 Chair: Rob Ellis
A Fine Balance: Individualism, Society and Mental Illness in the United States, 1945-1968 Matthew Smith	A Design for Life: Experimentation, control and citizenship in British and American epileptic communities Rachel Hewitt	"Mothers and children, first" or not: The politics of a fragile reform, the Sheppard-Towner Act Rima Apple	The Impact of Elite Medical Clubs on Twentieth Century British Health Policy Formation Sally Sheard	Comparing Apples and Oranges? Examining Hospital Provision in Three Central European Nations Barry Doyle
Insanity and the state: The Lancaster, Prestwich and Rainhill pauper lunatic asylums (Lancashire, UK), 1845-1914 Claire Deligny	Pensioner or "mentally deranged tramp"? Canadian First World War Veterans Encounters with the Board of Pension Commissioners Kandace Bogaert	Creating a Family Planning Niche: Examining Sweden's position in international family planning in the post war period Morag Ramsey	Professional power in the British state: the case of biomedical research, 1978 to 1982 Stephen Davies	Hungarian Hospitals 1920-1941 - Financial Aspects Balázs Szélinger
The City and the State: Management of the Insane Poor in Mid-19th Century Bristol Leonard Smith	Policing the social body: medicine and the law in legal gender recognition procedures (France and Italy) Olivia (Roger) Fiorilli	Why Don't They Come? Glasgow's Antenatal Provision, 1918-74 Janet Greenlees	State of the Art: Hospital Design under the National Health Service Victoria Bates	'Catching up, Patching up, Thinking Big: Institutional Health Care in Interwar Czechoslovakia' Frank Grombir
The Worthless Citizens: Hospitalized Psychopaths in Finland, 1945-1968 Katariina Parhi	Let's talk about sex: sexual education and Family Planning Centres in Spain (1979-1985) Ramón Castejón-Bolea, Agata Ignaciuk, Teresa Ortiz-Gómez	The formation of the social institution of motherhood and infancy, the medicalization and professionalization of motherhood in the 1910s in Russia Natalia Mitsyuk	'The Type of Person needed is one possessing a Wide Humanity': A History of Administrative Training in the NHS Philip Begley	Hospital Provision in Interwar Poland Melissa Hibberd
Physiological bases of the Soviet socialism in the 1920th years. Marya Sergeeva			Public hygiene and state compulsion. The origin of health policies in Italy (1888-1926) Roberto Cea

13.15-13.45 LUNCH BREAK

University Foyer

Main Amphitheatre 14.00-16.00	Theatre 2 14.00-16.00	Theatre 3 14.00-16.00	Theatre 4 14.00-16.00	Theatre 5 14.00-16.00
PANEL 21 - BEYOND THE NATION STATE: INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS AND THE PURSUIT OF HEALTH SECURITY, 1942-75 Chair: TBA	PANEL 22 - DISABLED VETERANS, MILITARY FAMILIES AND THE STATE Chair: Jessica Meyer	PANEL 23 - GOOD CITIZENS IN MID-TWENTIETH-CENTURY BRITISH PUBLIC HEALTH Chair: Alex Mold	PANEL 24 - STATES OF IRRESPONSIBILITY: ABORTION POLITICS IN THE COLD WAR Chair: TBA	PANEL 25 - ABORTION LAWS AND ACCESS TO ABORTION SERVICES IN GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE Chair: Gayle Davis
First Time Around: The Rise and Fall of 'Universal Health Coverage' as a Goal of International Health Politics, 1942-1952 Christopher Sirrs	'Nobody's Children?': The Ministry of Pensions and the Treatment of Disabled Great War Veterans in the Irish Free State, 1921-1939 Michael Robinson	The invention of exercise: Jerry Morris and the Social Medicine Research Unit, 1948-1975 Peder Clark	Changing views on population and birth control in 1940s-1970s China Mirela David	Abortion on eugenic grounds in Sweden in the 1930s and 1940s Lena Lennerhed
From 'Planning' to 'Systems Analysis': Health Services and Development at the World Health Organization, c. 1960-1975 Martin Gorsky	'Man not to be informed': State Intervention into the Private Lives of British Disabled Veterans from the First World War Alexia Moncrieff	"Is it fair that the public should bear the burden of the negligence of parents?" – The duties of parents with regard to diphtheria immunisation before the NHS (c. 1940-1948) Gareth Millward	"Difficult situation of an unmarried woman." Introducing abortion in state-socialist Czechoslovakia Katerina Liskova	Navigating Canada's 1969 abortion law: The Birth Control Handbook and Travel for Abortion Services Christabelle Sethna
Conceiving the Health System in Extremis: The WHO and Emergency Administration of Health Services in Laos and Cambodia, 1968-75 John Manton	'Work is the Sole Source of Human Happiness': Rehabilitation, Training, Employment and the Private Lives of Disabled Veterans in the Wartime Bohemian Lands and Interbellum Czechoslovakia Adam Luptak	"We owe so much to the class of '46": Survey subjects as "good" citizens in the National Survey of Health and Development Daisy Payling	Poor Body Politics: 1970s Reproductive Health in Canada Erika Dyck	"An underground public health office": medical and feminist abortion travel networks in Spain (1970-1985) Agata Ignaciuk
	Caring for Tommy's family: The nursing provisions of the Soldiers', Sailors' and Airmen's Families Association in Britain, Ireland and overseas 1892-1921 Paul Huddie

16.00-16.15 COFFEE BREAK

MainAmphitheatre	Theatre2	Theatre3	Theatre4	Theatre5
16.30-18.30	16.30-18.30	16.30-18.30	16.30-18.30	16.30-18.30
PANEL 26 - HEALTHCARE REFORMS IN SOUTHERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES: THE IDEOLOGICAL FIGHT TO IMPROVE HEALTH SYSTEMS Chair: Laurinda Abreu The universalist utopia: medical thought in the creation of the NHS in Italy (1961-1978) Giovanna Vicarelli Sickness or health? Two ways to understanding health care reform in the Spain of the 1970s Enrique Perdiguero-Gil, Josep Comelles ‘Progressive’ science meets ‘indifferent’ state? Revisiting the attempted mental healthcare reform in Greece (1950-1980) Despo Kritsotaki The limits of technocracy: the authoritarian modernisation of mental health care in late Franco’s Spain (1959-1975) Enric Novella	PANEL 27 - PREGNANT BODY POLITICS: A BIOGRAPHY OF THE BRITISH ABORTION ACT (1967) Chair: Christabelle Sethna ‘Shopping Around’: Mapping the Politics of Abortion in post-1967 Britain Gayle Davis ‘Babies for Burning’: Negotiating the Responsibilities of State, Health Professionals and Charities through Law Sally Sheldon ‘Abortion Games’: Navigating doctor-patient responsibility in termination decisions post-1967 Jane O’Neill Church, State and the Body in British Abortion Debates Clare Parker	PANEL 28 - PREVENTING INJURY AND PROTECTING THE PUBLIC: THE SHIFTING BOUNDARIES OF HEALTHCARE IN TWENTIETH-CENTURY BRITAIN Chair: Barry Doyle The State of Burns: Burns Research and Policy in Britain, c.1908-1960s Shane Ewen, Jonathan Reinartz, Rebecca Wynter The St. John Ambulance and Civil Society in Post-war Britain Stefan Ramsden First Aid and Nuclear Attack: The continuing role of British Red Cross voluntarism in support of emergency wartime medical services in Cold War Britain Rosemary Wall	PANEL 29 - REPRESENTING MADNESS IN THE AGE OF COMMUNITY CARE Chair: Leonard Smith Psychiatric Rehabilitation and the Politics of Madness in the Age of Community Care Rob Ellis The Legacy of the Psychiatric Institution: The Relational Component of Asylum Care Verusca Calabria Transnational Networks after the Institutional Closures: Narrating Madness in the Twentieth Century Catharine Coleborne	PANEL 30 - THE POLITICS OF PSYCHIATRY (1) Chair: Octavian Buda If I were to leave here, where would I go? Freedom, Subsistence and the Politics of Seeking Social Rights with Clinical Means Leyla Safta-Zecheria What is political about political psychiatry? On psychiatric power, subjects and resistance Monica Obreja The Politics of Madness: Art in Contexts of Distress Maria Alina Asavei

Saturday, September 2nd

9.30-10.30 KEYNOTE LECTURE - Constantin Goschler

Main Amphitheatre

10.45-10.55 COFFEE BREAK

Main Amphitheatre 11.00-13.00	Theatre 2 11.00-13.00	Theatre 3 11.00-13.00	Theatre 4 11.00-13.00	Theatre 5 11.00-13.00
PANEL 31 - THE RIGHT TO CARE AND THE RULE OF STATE: HEALTH, RESPONSIBILITY AND DISCIPLINE IN THE ENGLISH AND IRISH PRISON SYSTEMS Chair: Hilary Marland The 'Rule of Severity' or Entitlement to Health: the State, Prisoners and Mental Health in England and Ireland, 1850-1900 Catherine Cox, Hilary Marland 'Born in Prison': Medical Care and Maternity in the Early Twentieth-Century English Female Prison Rachel Bennett 'Problems out of all Proportion to their Number': Citizenship and the Disturbed in the English Youth Justice Estate, 1945-1970. Fiachra Byrne HIV and AIDS in English and Irish Prisons: A Policy Overview Janet Weston, Virginia Berridge	PANEL 32 - STATES AND VACCINATION PROGRAMMES IN SPAIN AND THE NETHERLANDS Chair: Alfredo Menéndez Navarro Implementation of compulsory health legislation: infant smallpox vaccination in the Netherlands, 19th-20th centuries Willibrord Rutten Crossroad 1940s Spain in the search for a typhus vaccine Esteban Rodríguez-Ocaña Health action and indoctrination: the participation of the Women's Section in the vaccination campaigns at the province Valencia during the first Francoism (1941-1958) José Manuel Maceiras-Chans, María Eugenia Galiana-Sánchez, Josep Bernabeu-Mestre The role played by doctors, the government and the WHO in the implementation of the poliomyelitis and rubella serological surveys in Spain (1958-1979) María-Isabel Porras, María-José Báguena Vaccination campaigns against viral diseases in Spain during the 20th century: as seen from the press Noelia Martín-Espinosa, María Victoria Caballero, Mariño Lourdes	PANEL 33 - THE POLITICS OF PSYCHIATRY (2) Chair: Adrian Majuru Psychiatry and eugenics in Romania. Public Health laws in Interwar Romania. Sorina Vasile National will to heal. The social body of post-traumatic war wounds Nicutar Andreea The failed apocalypse: Mind-control theory and practice of the early Post-war Romanian elite psychiatry and neurology Mugur Daniel Ciumăgeanu From the Statue of a Madman to the Mental Hospital of Elaziğ: Looking at the History of Tunceli from the Lunatic Side Çiçek Ilengiz	PANEL 34 - PREVENTIVE BIOPOLITICS IN SOUTHERN EUROPE (20TH CENTURY): INSTITUTIONS, INFECTIONS, VACCINES Chair: TBA Public nutrition policies and their influence on school feeding: the Spanish experience in the 20th century Josep Bernabeu-Mestre, Eva Trescastro, M.E. Galiana Public Health Surveillance and Infectious Diseases Control in the peripheral areas of the Italian State: the Fight against Tuberculosis and Trachoma in Sardinia in the Twentieth Century Lucia Pozzi National Institutes of Hygiene: a tool for State Biopolitics Josep L. Barona Clinical and laboratory research on the introduction of rubella vaccine in Spain María José Báguena Cervellera	PANEL 35 - REMEDIES, DEVELOPMENTS AND RECOGNITION Chair: Heiner Fangerau An unrecognized Genius? Themistocles Gluck (1853-1942), Politics of Excellence and the Nobel Prize Nils Hansson, Thorsten Halling Between advice and regulation. The modernizing role of doctors in Moldavia (first half of the 19th century) Sorin Grigoruta Greek Spas and the State: The Development of Greek Thermal and Seaside Resorts (Mid Nineteenth-Century-Early Twentieth Century) Melina Melpomeni Kostidi The Sublime as a Remedy for Immoderate Passions During the early 19th Century Javier Moscoso

13.00-13.30 LUNCH BREAK

University Foyer

13.15 EAHMH Scientific Board Meeting

13.45 GENERAL ASSEMBLY of the EAHMH

- Election of next President, topic and place of next Meeting
- Van Foreest Student Award

14.15 CLOSING REMARKS

16.00 HERASTRAU LAKE BOAT TRIP

